Course Catalogue

All courses offered by Sorbonne University can be found on the website, on either of the following links: <http://lettres.sorbonne-universite.fr/ufr> and <http://vof.paris-sorbonne.fr/fr/index.html> The University has its departments divided in different UFR's, which is an abbreviation of Unité de Formation et de Recherche (Unit of Education and Research), which corresponds to the different departments of humanities and arts. Incoming Erasmus students must take at least 50% of their workload from the Faculty that coordinates the bilateral agreement. The rest of their workload can be made up of courses from different Faculties.

Languages of Instruction

At Sorbonne University, most courses are taught in French, with the exception of certain language departments where courses are often taught in both the learned language and French.

Sorbonne University accepts students with a B2 level of French, however, a C1 level is highly recommended for students that are not studying in a language department. Especially for those studying History, History of Art, Philosophy and Sociology, a good understanding of the French language is necessary.

General Information

Academic grades and notation :

At Sorbonne University, all our marks are out of 20. For information, Sorbonne University has one the most difficult grading systems in France. It is important to note that a 10/20 is a good grade and that it stands for the passing grade. The credit part refers to the number of European credits the course provides. It is based on the 30 credits per semester system that French students must pass to validate one semester. It does not refer to the number of hours taken for one course. When noted "Attended", it means that your student attended the course but didn't pass the final exam. You can freely choose to give them the ECTS or not. When noted "Passed", it means that your student attended the course and passed the exam, but there is no grade because the professor doesn't give grades to their students. The local grade (/20) is the most relevant information you should consider to validate your students' semester/year at Sorbonne University.

Local grade out of 20	ECTS grade	Interpretation of grades
16 and more	A	Excellent
14-15	B	Very good
12-13	C	Good
11	D	Satisfactory
10	E	Sufficient
8-9	FX	Fail
0-7	F	Fail
