A digital volume of abstracts will be published and sent to e-mail addresses of all participants as a PDF file. A request for indexing the volume will be submitted to the Russian Science Citation Index (RSCI).

After the Symposium, publication of selected materials is planned in the journals of the Russian Entomological Society, namely, Russian Entomological Journal (indexed by Scopus, publications in English only) and Proceedings of the Russian Entomological Society (indexed by RSCI, publications in both Russian and English). If you plan to publish your research in these journals, please mail us at hymenoptera_nsu_2023@mail.ru, indicating both the names of the journal and of your manuscript as well as the list of all authors. The final decision on the publication of selected contributions, which must be reported during the Symposium, is made by the Organizing Committee.

For the citizens of Russia and other CIS countries, the full registration fee, if paid before 1 June 2023, is 3000 and 2000 rubles for in-person and online/remote participation respectively, or 1000 rubles for graduate/postgraduate students; after the deadline – 4000, 3000 and 1500 rubles respectively.

Payment of the registration fee should be performed through a wire transfer to the Sberbank card no. 4276 5000 5863 1597 addressed to Valeria Korolenya. You must provide the participant's name in the accompanying message (e.g., Registration fee paid for K.G. Samartsev). Citizens of other countries, who are planning an in-person participation in the Symposium, can pay the registration fee in rubles on arrival (an equivalent of 50 U.S. dollars on the date of payment); those with an online/remote participation please contact Dmitry Dubovikoff at dubovikoff@gmail.com. After receiving the fee, its acceptance will be confirmed via e-mail. Regretfully, we cannot provide any bank/accountancy documents regarding the registration fee, except for statements signed by the Chair/Deputy Chair of the Organizing Committee.

The following accommodation will be available for participants of the Symposium from outside Novosibirsk:

- NSU Hotel. New building of NSU (rectorate). Address: 1 Pirogova Street. Every room has an individual bathroom, shower, fridge and a TV set.

Single standard room (bathroom adapted for guests with disabilities) – 2300 rub.

Single standard room (wide single bed) – 2600 rub.

Double standard room (double bed) – 3200 rub.

Standard suite of two rooms with a shared bathroom – 2000 rub. per room. If the suite is occupied by a single guest (the second room remains locked), the room rates will be 2600 and 3200 rub. for rooms with wide single and double beds respectively.

Semi-deluxe suite of two rooms: a bedroom with a double bed, recreation area – 3700 rub.

Deluxe suite of three rooms: a bedroom with a double bed, an office room with a computer table, recreation area, and a bathroom with a bath – 4200 rub.

- NSU dormitories

Older dormitories: a bed in a quadruple room, with 3-4 rooms per section; shared bathroom and shower, a shared kitchen in a separate room on the same floor (alternatively, the shower is also in a separate room) – 520 rub.

Newer dormitories: a bed in a double room, with 2 rooms per section; shared bathroom, shower and kitchen – 1030 rub.

- SB RAS Hotel “Zolotaya Dolina” (“Golden Valley”)

You can find room descriptions and prices on the hotel's website: <https://gold-valley.ru>. Discounted rates can be offered to employees of RAS research institutes on presentation of travel documents authorized by their institutes.

In addition to the hotels, room rent on a daily basis is also widespread in Novosibirsk. You can choose and reserve an appropriate accommodation on your own using e.g. Yandex Travel, Ostrovok.ru, Cian.ru. This accommodation can be substantially less expensive than the NSU hotel, especially if you can share rooms with other participants.

Please let the Organizing Committee know at hymenoptera_nsu_2023@mail.ru about the type of accommodation and number of rooms/suites you are going to reserve. If you are going to reserve a room at the NSU dormitories, please contact the Committee as soon as possible. We need both to reserve this type of accommodation and to estimate the number of room sections in advance. Since this is not a hotel, there are no single rooms. The number of guests per room will depend on the general demand of the particular type of accommodation during our Symposium, because many different events take place at NSU during the summer. The sooner we know how many participants we are going to have there, the higher will be the chance to reserve double rooms, which are comfortable enough, especially in the newer dormitories.

The detailed and updated information together with travel directions, as well as the program of the Symposium will be provided in the Third Announcement.

All actual information can be found on the official Internet pages of the meeting:

Please confirm your arrival at the Symposium before 20 May 2023.
